

ORDER OF THE WEEKEND

FRIDAY 8TH JUNE, 2012

- 3.30pm      Civil ceremony (obligatory in France)
Mairie, Buais
Due to the size of the village town hall, only immediate family members and witnesses are invited. For everyone else, please meet at the church from 4pm.
- 4.30pm      Church ceremony
St. Anne's Church, Buais
Parking is available outside the church and in the village.
How to get there: head to Buais and look for the spire!
- 5.15pm      Photos outside the church
Following the photos, time permitting, we will go on a traditional wedding car convoy through the local villages – horn-beeping obligatory.
- 6.30pm      Photos and apéritifs at La Mancellière
Please park on the lane approaching our house rather than the driveway as we need to keep this clear throughout the day. Cars can also be left next to the cemetery on the main road (3 mins walk) or in the village (10 mins walk). Due to our rural location, it's worth bringing a torch for the return journey!
- 7.30pm      Speeches
Arise Sir Denis and Monsieur Oates!
- 8pm          Dinner is served
Please let us know in advance if you are vegetarian. Also, if you prefer your steak cooked more than medium, please tell us and we'll inform the chef.
- 10.30pm    Music and dancing
Including some new Breton dance moves to learn.
- The end      We will be talking to the local taxi company to hopefully have taxis on hand to drive people back to their hotels/gites. Please let us know if you require a taxi and we'll put your name on a list.

SATURDAY 9TH JUNE, 2012

- 4pm          Apéritifs in the garden at La Mancellière
- From 5pm    Barbecue and drinks
Including England vs. France garden games, weather permitting!
